

Hans – A Lifetime of Service and Stewardship

For 36 years, Hans has been a proud Lion, serving with distinction as a member of the Noranda Lions Club. His leadership within the club is remarkable, having held key roles including:

- Treasurer – 7 terms
- Lion Tamer – 6 terms
- Club Director – 4 terms

Beyond the club, Hans has made significant contributions at the district level, serving as Environment Chairperson for 7 years in the former District W1. His commitment to environmental stewardship is further reflected in his 10 years as Director at Dryandra Village and 7 years as Director of the Lions Cancer Institute.

Honors and Recognition

Hans' service has earned him prestigious awards:

- Ian Stockdale Humanitarian Award
- James D Richardson Award (twice)
- Melvin Jones Fellowship

A Passion for Conservation and Education

Hans is deeply committed to protecting wildlife and natural habitats. He has been a long-standing volunteer at the Native Animal Rescue hospital in Malaga, caring for injured and orphaned animals. His dedication to the Bibbulmun Track Foundation is extraordinary—contributing over 3,000 volunteer hours in visitor services, track maintenance, and reporting to Parks and Wildlife.

As a foundation member of the Lightning Swamp Community Care Group, Hans continues to champion conservation efforts. An avid bird watcher, he shares his knowledge enthusiastically with visitors, fostering appreciation for local biodiversity.

Sharing Knowledge

Hans also gives back through education, volunteering as a lecturer at the University of Western Australia, where he teaches Philosophy and Ancient History during the summer break—an inspiring example of lifelong learning and service.

Hans embodies the true spirit of Lionism—service, leadership, and a deep commitment to community and environment. His legacy is one of compassion, knowledge, and tireless dedication.
