

Joy Patricia Sinclair – A Lifetime of Compassion, Service, and Community Impact

For more than three decades, Lion Joy Patricia Sinclair has embodied the heart and spirit of Lionism. Joining Lions Clubs International in 1991, Joy has served with distinction in both the Riverton Lions Club and the Lions Club of Canning City. Her steadfast commitment, genuine care for others, and tireless work ethic have made her an invaluable presence within her club, district, and the wider Western Australian community.

Club Leadership

Joy has contributed across many vital roles, bringing leadership, empathy, and dedication to every position she has undertaken. Her service includes:

- 1st Vice President – twice
- 3rd Vice President – twice
- Club Director
- Children of Courage Chairperson

Her compassionate leadership has supported children, strengthened families, and created lasting community impact.

District & State Contributions

Joy's influence extends far beyond her own club, with significant contributions at the District and State levels. She has held key roles in hearing services and foundations supporting vulnerable people:

- Chairperson, Hearing Services – 4 terms
- Lions Hearing Dog Chairperson
- Director, Lions Hearing Foundation

Her efforts have advanced Lions' hearing programs and improved access to essential services across Western Australia.

Honours and Recognition

Joy's lifelong service has been acknowledged through some of Lions' most prestigious awards:

- Melvin Jones Fellowship
- Arthur and Lorna Dodd Hearing Foundation Award
- District Governor's Star Award
- District Governor's Appreciation Awards

These honours reflect Joy's extraordinary dedication, leadership, and unwavering commitment to serving others.

Beyond Lions

Beyond her Lions achievements, Joy has lived a professional life dedicated to helping the vulnerable. As a social worker, she provided critical support and advocacy, including serving as a board member of Nulsen Haven, supporting men transitioning through halfway housing. Her profound contribution to social work earned her numerous accolades, including the distinguished:

- Order of Australia Medal (OAM) – for Services to Social Work

Today, Joy continues to make a meaningful difference. Working with clubs across Districts W1 and W2, she coordinates:

- Toiletry kits and blankets for homeless youth through Uniting Care West and St Patrick's Fremantle
- Knotted blankets for Solaris Cancer Care
- Knotted blankets for Perth Children's Hospital
- Support for Dress for Success, providing clothing to people seeking employment

Her compassion continues to bring dignity, comfort, and hope to those who need it most.

Lion Joy Patricia Sinclair is more than a dedicated Lion—she is a mentor, a humanitarian, and a remarkable community champion whose legacy of service will continue to inspire for generations.
