

Lion Lynette (Lyn) Mitchell – A Dedicated Leader, Trailblazer, and Lifelong Community Contributor

Nominated by the Lions Club of Collie

Lion Lynette (Lyn) Mitchell has been an active and valued member of the Lions family for nearly four decades. Beginning her service in 1986 with the Lioness Club of Collie, Lyn quickly became a committed member and strong supporter of community initiatives. In 1992, she became a Charter Member of the newly formed Lions Club of Collie-Wellington, an all-female Lions club. When Collie-Wellington merged with the Lions Club of Collie in 2012 to form a mixed-gender club, Lyn continued her service as a respected and dedicated member.

Club Leadership

Throughout her long involvement in Lionism, Lyn has held numerous leadership positions within her clubs, contributing experience, stability, and a deep commitment to service. Her roles include:

- President
- Secretary
- Treasurer

Her consistent leadership and hands-on approach have supported the long-term effectiveness and community impact of the Collie Lions Club.

District Contributions

At the District level, Lyn extended her leadership by serving on the 201W2 Cabinet as:

- Hospitality Coordinating Chair

Her organisational skill and warm, welcoming presence helped ensure successful District functions and events.

Honours and Recognition

Lyn's service has been recognised with significant Lions honours, including:

- Melvin Jones Fellowship
- Multiple President's Appreciation Awards

These awards acknowledge her dedication, reliability, and exceptional contribution to her club and community.

Beyond Lions

Lyn's commitment to her community extends far beyond her Lions service. Her contributions include:

- Nominee – Collie Citizen of the Year
- Life Member – Collie Basketball Association
- 30-Year Service Badge – Read Write Now (WA Government)
 - Recognised for three decades of volunteering to support adult literacy and learning

Her involvement reflects a lifelong passion for strengthening her community and supporting people in need.

Lion Lynette (Lyn) Mitchell is a dedicated Lion, a respected leader, and a valued community volunteer. Her decades of service across Lioness, Lions, and community organisations stand as a testament to her compassion, commitment, and enduring contribution to the Collie community.
