

Lion Murray Fletcher – A Dedicated Lion, Communications Leader, and Advocate for Global Youth Support

Nominated by the City of Perth (Host) Lions Club

Lion Murray Fletcher has been a proud and active member of Lions Clubs International since 1965, contributing an extraordinary 48 years of service. A respected leader, communicator, and community advocate, Murray has made a lasting impact through his club involvement, district leadership, and international humanitarian projects.

Club & District Leadership

During his long Lionistic journey, Murray has served in numerous club roles, including:

- Club President
- Club Secretary

His influence extended well beyond the club level. For an exceptional 17 years, Murray served as:

- Cabinet Magazine Chairman – West Lion Magazine
 - 2 years for District W1
 - 15 years as editor for both Districts

His stewardship of the West Lion Magazine helped strengthen communication, share stories of service, and connect Lions across Western Australia.

Major Contributions to Lions Foundations

Murray also played an important role in Lions health and sight-saving initiatives. He was:

- One of the 36 original members of the Incorporated Lions Eye Institute
- Director – Lions Save-Sight Foundation (10 years)

His involvement provided governance, advocacy, and support for world-class vision research and treatment services throughout Western Australia.

Honours and Recognition

Lion Murray Fletcher's outstanding dedication has been recognised with numerous prestigious awards, including:

- District Governor Plaques
- International President's Appreciation Award
- District Governor's Star Award
- James D. Richardson Honour Award
- Melvin Jones Fellowship

These honours reflect his long-term commitment, leadership, and service across multiple dimensions of Lionism.

Beyond Lions

Murray's service to the community extends far beyond his work with Lions. He has been deeply involved in aviation and global youth support initiatives, including:

- Member – Royal Aero Club (45 years)
- Pilot – 46 years
- Member – Police Aero Club (30 years)

He also dedicated significant time to humanitarian technology support as:

- Club Computer Project Chairman
 - Under his leadership, over 2,000 refurbished computers have been sent to underprivileged children overseas, providing educational opportunities and access to learning resources.

This remarkable contribution has improved the lives of thousands of young people globally.

A Legacy of Leadership and Service

Lion Murray Fletcher is recognised as a dedicated Lion, skilled communicator, committed volunteer, and global humanitarian. His decades of service reflect a deep love of community, a passion for improving lives, and an unwavering commitment to the values of Lionism.

His legacy continues to inspire Lions throughout Western Australia and beyond.
