

Lion Roy Stubberfield – A Foundation Builder, Tireless Leader, and Icon of Lionism

Nominated by the Lions Club of Manjimup

Lion Roy Stubberfield has been a committed and influential member of Lions Clubs International for more than five decades. Beginning his incredible journey in 1969, Roy has played a major role in chartering new clubs, developing strong leadership teams, and expanding Lionism across Western Australia. His dedication, energy, and legacy of service place him among the most impactful Lions in his region's history.

Club Leadership

Throughout his long career, Roy has served a remarkable list of Lions clubs, often stepping into leadership roles at the highest level. His club contributions include:

- Lions Club of Meekatharra – Charter President (1969)
- Lions Club of Leeuwin – Charter Vice President (1971)
- Lions Club of Kulin – Charter President (1972)
- Lions Club of Narrogin – Secretary (1976)
- Lions Club of Manjimup – Bulletin Editor & Programmes Chairman (from 1978)

Across these clubs, Roy has held almost every executive position, including:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Membership Chairman
- Tail Twister

His leadership has strengthened every club he has served, leaving a legacy of stability, growth, and community connection.

District Contributions

Roy has contributed widely at the District level through numerous leadership and committee roles, including:

- Zone Chairman
- District Chairman
- Chairman – Dryandra Committee
- Save Sight Committee
- ALDAF Committee
- Quest Committee
- And many other project and advisory positions

His District-wide leadership has supported youth programs, sight preservation, health initiatives, and community service projects across Western Australia.

Outstanding Achievements

Roy's impact on Lionism is exceptional. His personal achievements include:

- Personally sponsoring 19 new Lions members
- Chartering 3 new Lions clubs
- Assisting in the establishment of 5 additional clubs

This level of contribution reflects extraordinary commitment to membership growth and the expansion of Lionism into new communities.

Honours and Recognition

Lion Roy has received an extensive and impressive list of awards acknowledging his commitment, leadership, and service. Among them:

- James D. Richardson Honour Award
- Melvin Jones Fellowship
- 40-Year Charter Monarch Chevron
- Key Member Award
- District Governor's Appreciation Award

- Zone Chairman Award
- Secretary of the Year Award
- Life Membership – Lions Clubs International
- Perfect Attendance Awards
- Extension Award
- Plus many additional honours over his decades of service

These recognitions reflect both the volume and the quality of Roy's outstanding contribution to Lionism.

Lion Roy Stubberfield is not only a long-serving Lion—he is a builder, a mentor, a leader, and a visionary whose dedication has shaped multiple clubs and inspired countless members. His extraordinary legacy stands as a testament to the power of commitment, service, and the true spirit of Lionism.