

PDG Harry Snell OAM JP – A Pioneer of Lionism, Distinguished Leader, and Champion of Community Service

Nominated by the Lions Club of Morley

Past District Governor Harry Snell OAM JP devoted more than 40 years to Lions Clubs International and is remembered as one of the true pioneers of Lionism in Western Australia. His decades of service were marked by leadership, vision, and an unwavering commitment to expanding and strengthening Lions clubs across the State.

Club & District Leadership

Throughout his remarkable Lionistic career, Harry served in most major club positions, including several highly respected terms as:

- Club President
- District Governor
- Extension Chairman
- Youth Exchange Chairman
- CBL Chairman
- WA Representative – Darwin Relief Committee

His leadership at both club and district levels shaped programs, mentored generations of members, and contributed immeasurably to the growth of Lionism throughout Western Australia.

Growth & Membership Development

One of Harry's most significant contributions was his extraordinary success in extending Lionism. His achievements include:

- Master Key Award – for sponsoring 30 new members
- Instrumental in chartering 20 new Lions Clubs

This remarkable record places Harry among the most influential membership builders in WA Lions history. His ability to inspire others to serve has left a legacy that continues through the clubs and Lions he helped introduce to the organisation.

Honours and Recognition

Harry's lifelong dedication to the Lions and to his community earned him several major accolades, including:

- OAM – Medal of the Order of Australia (2001)
- Justice of the Peace (JP)
- Multiple Lions awards recognising leadership, extension, and service

These honours reflect his outstanding service not only to Lionism but also to the wider Western Australian community.

A Lasting Legacy

PDG Harry Snell OAM JP is remembered as a visionary Lion, a builder of clubs, a mentor to many, and a community advocate whose influence can still be felt across the District. His decades of dedicated service, leadership, and passion for Lionism stand as an enduring example of what it means to live the motto We Serve.
