

PDG John (Jack) Sells – A Respected Leader, Dedicated Lion, and Long-Serving Community Contributor

Nominated by the Lions Club of Whitford

Past District Governor John (Jack) Sells has been a committed and influential member of Lions Clubs International for more than 36 years. Throughout his distinguished service, Jack has demonstrated unwavering dedication to Lionism, strong leadership, and a deep commitment to supporting his clubs and community.

Club Leadership

Jack has served in leadership roles across three Lions clubs, holding all major executive positions. His willingness to step into any role needed reflects his versatility, reliability, and genuine commitment to strengthening club operations and supporting fellow Lions.

His executive roles have included:

- President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Vice President
- And other key administrative and leadership responsibilities across his clubs

In 2011/2012, Jack was honoured as Club Secretary of the Year, recognising his exceptional dedication and administrative excellence.

District Leadership

At the District level, Jack has served with distinction, most notably as:

- District Governor – 1981/1982

His term as District Governor contributed to major developments in membership, service programs, and leadership support across the District.

Jack's long-standing commitment to Lionism has earned him the respect and admiration of Lions throughout Western Australia.

Honours and Recognition

Jack's remarkable service has been acknowledged with one of Lions' highest honours:

- Life Membership – Lions Clubs International

This recognition reflects decades of heartfelt commitment, leadership, and service.

PDG John (Jack) Sells is a dedicated Lion, an experienced leader, and a valued mentor whose contributions over 36 years have strengthened every club he has served. His legacy reflects a lifetime of service and unwavering loyalty to the ideals of Lionism.