

PDG Robin Dixon – A Dedicated Leader, Community Advocate, and Champion of Service

Nominated by the Lions Club of Duncraig

Past District Governor Robin Dixon joined the Duncraig Lions Club in 1998, bringing with him a strong commitment to community service and a passion for helping others. Throughout his years as a Lion, Robin made a profound impact across multiple community programs, humanitarian initiatives, and Lions projects.

Community & Club Contributions

During his time with the Duncraig Lions Club, Robin contributed energetically to a range of service initiatives. His involvement included:

- Foodbank
- Community Development Fund
- Clontarf Football Programme
- Kingsley Football Bali Appeal (2002)
 - Serving as a Trustee of the Lions-managed fund supporting players injured in the Bali bombings

Robin's compassionate leadership ensured that funds were responsibly managed and that support reached those most affected by tragedy.

Revitalising the Dianella Lions Club

One of Robin's most notable achievements was his instrumental role in the revitalisation of the Dianella Lions Club. He:

- Became a member
- Introduced many new Lions
- Rebuilt its strength and momentum

He also organised a two-page promotional insert in *The West Australian, significantly raising public awareness of Lions and showcasing the organisation's work across the state—one of his proudest achievements.

Honours and Recognition

Robin's exceptional dedication and service were recognised with several prestigious Lions awards, including:

- Melvin Jones Fellowship
- James D. Richardson Honour Award – twice
- International President's Certificate of Appreciation

These honours reflect his commitment, leadership, and enduring impact within Lionism and the wider community.

Beyond Lions

Before joining Lions, Robin already had a long and widely respected history of community volunteering. His strong moral character, compassionate nature, and willingness to serve made him a natural fit for Lionism and a valued community leader.

PDG Robin Dixon is remembered as a compassionate leader, a dedicated volunteer, and a Lion who made a lasting difference through service, advocacy, and community care. His legacy continues to inspire members of the Lions Club of Duncraig and Lions across Western Australia.
